

Welcome Week is quickly approaching and starts the moment you arrive on campus! Here are some helpful hints to maximize your Welcome Week experience. The planned activities and programs will help acclimate you to campus, resources, and Boston, and most importantly, introduce you to your new classmates and friends! All events and excursions are complimentary and for students only.

Step 1: Download our app to access the complete Welcome Week schedule.

Check out the 200+ programs and activities that are planned especially for you. Select programs you're interested in and add to My Schedule to begin creating your personal experience.

Step 2: Once you arrive on campus, pick up your Welcome Week wristband! This wristband must be worn for entrance to our exclusive programs for new students. Wristbands can be picked up at one of our Welcome Week Booth locations. Click here for times and locations. Husky ID required!

Step 3: Take note of these featured events - check the schedule for details!

Monday, September 2 (Labor Day)

- Northeastern DIY Arts & Games Festival and Huskies After Dark: Silent Dance Party on the Quad! Wristband required

Tuesday, September 3

- College Welcomes (mandatory)
Meet ALL of your new classmates as you commence as one with your academic college/program. Check the app for your time and location
- Convocation 2024 (mandatory)
Convocation is a welcome ceremony for all new undergraduate students that marks the beginning of your academic journey. Once you arrive on campus, be sure to pick up your Convocation T-shirt to wear at the ceremony. Details here!
- Fall Fest
Get engaged! Fall Fest is the perfect opportunity for you to learn about Northeastern's 500+ student organizations, campus departments, and sports and recreational teams.

Step 4: Acclimate yourself to Boston! Join us for excursions to Little Italy, Chinatown, Faneuil Hall, and the Charles River Esplanade, among many other destinations! We'll show you how to use our subway system (the T) as we explore the city.

Families, you know your student best! Browse through our offerings and encourage your student to participate in what you think they'll have interest in.

Enjoy these last days of summer! We're looking forward to welcoming you on campus soon!

Sincerely,

The Office of Student Orientation and Family Programs
